MEN UNITED IN PRAYER.

In the presence of what many of its leaders consider "overwhelming lasks," the Men and Religion Ferward Movement, in its preliminary Washington campaign, which is now on, has proposed to face the question directly and definitely. "What is my task?" and accordingly has called a meeting of committees of six from the various local churches participating in the movement, at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church to-morrow afternoon at 2:38. Chairmen of general committees on evangelism, Bible study, social service, community extension, boys' work, and publicity are to make brief speeches outlining their specific tasks. It is a conference meeting to aid acquaintance with the purposes and plans of the campaign.

These same men seem to have understood that seme tasks may be accomplished more readily "by prayer." They have grasped the import of the word of Jesus about undertakings which are impossible "save by Accordingly they have called upon Washington men to join in observance of the week of November 12-18 as a week of prayer for men and boys, with daily meetings at 4:45 p. m. The emphasis is, they say, upon "intercession rather than personal petition," and the committee ex-presses the hope that many men who cannot possibly attend the formal services will use the topics in private devotions.
